SILK THIEVES RAID O. H. MARTIN STORE

BOLD ROBBERS GOT AWAY WITH ABOUT ONE THOUSAND DOL-LARS IN CASH AND GOODS.

STOLE SILK AND RIFLED SAFE

Took Seventy-Three Bolts Finest Silk and Many Pairs of Gloves and Silk Stockings—Smashed and Looted Safe of Cash.

The dry goods store of O. H. Martin & Co. was robbed of over $900 worth of silk goods and about $118 in cash sometime last night, and although the officers have suspicions of several strangers who were around the city yesterday, no clues have been obtained.

The robbers made their entrance through a rear window of the store where, by climbing onto a shed in which oil is stored by the Dixon Grocery company, they were able to reach the window, which is about 15 feet from the ground.

Sorted Out Silk.

That the burglary was the work of professionals is evident from the thoroughness with which they completed their haul, and it is also apparent that one of the thieves, at least, had been in the store during the day and learned the location of the safe and the surroundings in the store.

For, after entering the store, it is evident that they went at once to the silk goods, which were near the front of the room where, behind some cases in which shirt waists are displayed, they had ample opportunity to sort out the goods and take what they wanted.

Took Gloves and Hose.

A great many pairs of high priced kid gloves and silk hose, which were kept on the west side of the room, were also taken, the empty boxes being left on the counter near the shelves on which they were stored. Fortunately a large shipment of expensive gloves, which were received yesterday, had not been placed on the shelves and the robbers missed them.

Wrappers Discarded.

The robbery was discovered by Joe Barry and Harry Waterman when they opened the store this morning. Neither of them noticed the empty shelves as they passed through to the rear of the store, but a disorderly sight met their eyes as they got behind the show case which stands across the rear of the store.

Scattered about in chaos were the paper wrappers in which the silk goods were kept, and papers were also thrown about in disorder. They started an investigation, and summoned Mr. Martin and Miss Reynolds, the cashier.

Broke Into Safe

The investigation which followed showed the thoroughness with which the thieves performed their work. On attempting to open the large safe in the rear of the store, Miss Reynolds found the heavy outside door locked, although it has always been the custom of the firm to leave the outer door open, to prevent the safe being absolutely ruined in case of a robbery.

When the outer door was opened it was found that the robbers had broken a handle off the inner door and had thus been able to release the lock. The drawers on the inside of the safe had been pried open, the wood being splintered away as if with a "jimmy." The little door to the money compartment had not been locked, and the robbers had easy access to the two drawers and silver compartment. About $58 in silver and $60 in bills, the latter amount being funds of an organization of men who recently gave a dancing party at Rosbrook hall, of which organization Mr. Martin was elected treasurer. A drawer full of bills in the middle compartment, belonging to the store, had not been molested.

Cash Drawer Pried Open.

A cash drawer in the office, in the balcony, was also pried open and about $5 in change taken. Further investigation showed that the suit case, in which it is evident the robbers removed their haul, had been taken from the store.

Expensive Goods.

The silks that were taken indicate that the robbers have had previous experience in this line, as the cheaper grades and remnants were discarded. Seventy-three of the wrappers were found empty, but just how much the stolen goods were valued at will not be determined until an inventory of the stock has been taken. Nor will it be possible to ascertain, until then, just how many pairs of gloves and hose were taken.

Acid on Rug?

Closer investigation of the surroundings showed a damp spot on the rug behind the show case where the thieves sorted out the silk, while it has the appearance of oil, has an acid smell. A woolen fascinator was also found behind this show case which was also wet and had the same odor as the wet spot on the rug. Whether this has any special significance or not the officers have not been able to determine.

Took New Goods.

Later developments in the case show that the robbers took a great deal of new silk that had just been put in stock and it is evident that they could not get all of it into a suit case and wrapped some of it in a large bundle, using the ropes from two of the cash carriers with which to tie the bundles.

Suspects Went to Chicago.

With these clues to work on the officers made an investigation at the Northwestern depot, and it was ascertained that four tickets were sold to Chicago for the 3:49 a. m. passenger and that one ticket was sold to Ashton and one to Rochelle.

Night Ticket agent Garland of the Northwestern states that one of the men who went to Chicago had a large white bundle while another carried the suit case. Mr. Martin and the officers are of the belief that the thieves boarded the train and immediately after arriving in Chicago sold the goods to one of the "fences" that are known to be in the city.

Owner Not Insured.

Mr. Martin estimates his loss at about $1,000, about $150 or $175 of this being in hose and gloves. He carried no burglary insurance, and therefore loses the entire amount. He will go to Chicago as soon as possible to replenish his stock of silk.

GROUND THAWING.

City water service pipes from the city mains, which have been frozen for weeks, are loosening up, apparently, for the water is finding its way through many of them today. This would seem to indicate that the frost in the ground is working its way up from the great depth attained during the cold winter.

SCHOOL ELECTION IS GENERAL ELECTION

SO SAYS APPELLATE COURT IN CASE AGAINST EMIL PRESSLER
OF DIXON—WILL BE CARRIED UP.

In the first ruling on the question in the history of the state and in a case taken up from Lee county circuit court, the appellate court at Ottawa yesterday held that a school election is a general election, and that therefore saloons must close in accordance with the law during such elections.

The decision was handed down in the case of the People vs. Emil Pressler, who, together with the other saloon keepers of Dixon, was indicted by the last April grand jury for keeping his saloon open on election day. Inasmuch as there never had been a decision on this question, the indictments were quashed and by an agreement between Attorney John E. Erwin, representing the defendants, and States Attorney Edwards, a test case was taken up. Judge Heard, in order to bring the question to the notice of the court, held that the school election was a general election, and fined Pressler $25. Yesterday at Ottawa the appellate court affirmed the decision of the lower court.

That a ruling on the question may be obtained from the highest court, the local liquor dealers will carry the case up to the Illinois supreme court.

MERRIAM WILL SPEAK WITH PROGRESSIVES

CHICAGO UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR WILL SPEAK TO DIXON-ITES TOMORROW FROM PLAT-FORM WITH JONES AND MAGILL.

Professor Charles B. Merriam of the University of Chicago, leader of the progressive forces in their successful fight to wrest control from the machine bosses at the republican mayoralty primaries in Chicago last year, will accompany Senators Walter C. Jones and Hugh S. Magill and speak with them at Dixon Friday afternoon at the Family theatre at 2 o'clock.

GIRLS DISAPPEAR; FOUND IN DIXON

LITTLE GIRLS CAME TO DIXON TO VISIT FATHER OF ONE BUT POLICE ARE WORRIED AND SEARCH FOR THEM.

The Dixon police were yesterday asked to look for Virginia Beck and Olive Williams, two eleven year old Chicago girls, who are supposed to have run away from their homes in that city; but the developments following the investigation by the local officers show that the girls came to Dixon to visit the Beck girl's father, who lives at 428 West Eighth street and who is employed at the cement plant.

The girls, who are pretty little misses, have been schoolmates for several years and, of course, were much together. The Beck girl resides at 2160 Ogden avenue, Chicago, and her companion lives with her grandmother, Mrs. Martha Williams, 2029 VanBuren avenue, Chicago.

The girls left school together Tuesday afternoon and when they did not make their appearance at their respective homes that night the police were notified. It was found that the Beck girl had gotten money to come to Dixon to visit her father and of course the officers then notified the local police. Investigation showed that the little girls arrived here at 8:57 last night and went at once to the Beck home, where they were found, safe and sound.

EASTBOUND LATE.

Passenger train No. 2, eastbound, was several hours late this morning as the result of delayed connections in the west.

TRANSFER OF ROAD FINE FOR DIXON

GOOD PROBABILITY THAT WITH INSULL INTEREST OWNER-SHIP WILL COME EXTENSIONS.

Will Probably Go to Freeport

Many Thousands Will Be Spent in Development Here—Will Probably Extend From Sterling on to Clinton or Moline Also—Working Quietly.

In spite of the fact that local authorities pretend not to know, and local newspapers except the Telegraph surely do not know, the deal in regard to the power plant in Dixon and the S. D. & E. Interurban has gone through, as has been stated exclusively in the Telegraph recently. The Telegraph has also given other exclusive information in regard to the power plants in Sterling, Oregon, Belvidere, etc. It will be a few days only before the company will make the matter public through their official taking over of the road.

The Insull interests do nothing on the brass band order, and they have been working quietly on their vast project for many months and in a few days it will become known that, while there has been no ripple of disturbance of the regular routine of work in the local properties, and that to all appearances everything is the same, the Public Service company of Northern Illinois is owner of the road and power and gas plant.

Will Extend Roads.

It is very probable that the syndicate will extend the S. D. & E. from Dixon north to Freeport, so as to connect with the Rockford Interurban lines, and so on to Chicago, and either west from Sterling to Clinton or southwest to Moline.

It is likely that a connection with the McKinley System, which controls hundreds of miles of electric roads in central Illinois, will be established. It is reported from Sterling, but not verified, that the new syndicate is after the Lyndon power site, and that they will develop the water power at this point.

ATTEMPT LIFE OF ITALIAN KING

ROMAN ANARCHIST SHOOTS AT KING EMANUEL IN STREET—WOUNDS ESCORT.

Rome, Italy, Mch. 14—Special to Telegraph—An attempt was made to assassinate King Emanuel early today while he was driving to the Pantheon to attend a memorial service on the anniversary of the funeral of his father, King Humbert, who was shot and killed by an anarchist near Milan on July 29, 1900.

A man, standing by the curb, fired at the king, but his bullet went wide of the mark and wounded Major Lang of the Royal Carabinieri, who was riding at the side of the royal carriage.

The would-be assassin was seized and almost beaten to death before he was rescued by the police.

He was rushed to police headquarters, where he gave his name as Antonio Dalba. He said he was a Roman anarchist and gave his age as 22. The king continued on to the service after the man had been removed to jail and his wounded escort had received attention.

A CHARITABLE ACT.

Commissioners Schuler and Van Bibber made themselves doubly popular yesterday noon when they helped a little girl, who was improperly clothed. This little mite, who had waded down town through the slush and snow to see the parade, in shoes that resembled sieves, was taken in tow by the commissioners and when she left for home she was supplied with new shoes and stockings.

TAX COLLECTORS HERE.

Tax Collector Louis Craig and Deputy Louis Beach of Ashton and Collector Martin Wigum of Brookline were callers at the county treasurer's office today.

PINCHOT IS OUT FOR HUGH MAGILL

TOOK STRONG STAND IN FAVOR OF STATE OFFICERS'S CAM-PAIGN TO SUCCEED
CULLOM.

Speaking from the same platform with Senator Hugh S. Magill, Gifford Pinchot, chief forester of the United States under the Roosevelt administration, in a speech at Danville, endorsed the progressive rival of Shelby M. Cullom for United States senator and declared his election would mean one more fighting man against the special interests.

"I am glad to appear with Senator Magill," he said, "and I hope he will be sent to the United States senate, as I know he'll be one more fighting man for the people, to wrest control from the special interests."

Senator Magill is stumping the state delivering speeches in all the principal cities that can be reached before the primaries. Wherever the progressive element of the republican party is in control, he is meeting with encouragement. Senator Magill will probably end his downstate tour this week and devote the closing days of the campaign to a stirring roundup of the Chicago wards. He is allied with the Roosevelt movement which is gaining a tremendous momentum in Illinois and in his speeches advocates the principles which Roosevelt has enunciated.

Senator Magill stands pledged to civil service, direct election of United States senators, the initiative and referendum and scientific revision of the tariff.

"These measures are not radical, but conservative," says Senator Magill. "They have been tried in many states and have been found safe and effective. They do not destroy nor supplant representative government, but they do make it more truly representative. When the people are masters, representatives are more responsive, the political crook is driven out, and honest men stay honest."

Senator Magill was brought out as a candidate for United States senator in opposition to Shelby M. Cullom by the progressive element in the republican party last fall, at the close of the 47th general assembly, of which he was a member in the upper house. He was one of the floor leaders of the senate during the last session, and as chairman of the civil service committee, was active in securing the establishment of the merit system in Illinois.

During his career in the legislature Senator Magill actively supported and voted for the following measures:

Comprehensive civil service laws. The corrupt practices act.

The ten hour working law for women.

The workmen's compensation law and employers' liability act.

The mining laws for safety and protection of miners.

As a member of the sub-committee he wrote the bill providing for the initiative and referendum by constitutional amendment, which passed the senate by unanimous vote, only to be defeated in the house.

He introduced and secured the passage through the senate of an amendment to the constitution abolishing minority representation.

He introduced and fought for a bill reducing the cost of school text books and providing for greater uniformity, which met defeat through the interference of the book trust.

He strongly supported the Helms committee in its investigation of the Lorimer scandal and the resolution calling on the United States senate to re-investigate the case.

JONES-MAGILL MANAGER HERE.

F. A. Harrington, campaign manager for Jones and Magill, was in the city on Thursday arranging with the local progressives for the big progressive meeting to be held at the Family theatre Friday afternoon. Mr. Harrington while here took time to pay an exceptionally fine tribute to the late E. B. Fletcher, former campaign manager for these candidates, and at one time manager of the Sterling Standard.

WILL BE OPERATED UPON.

Mrs. Theresa Tibbets, accompanied by Mrs. W. A. Schuler, left today for Pennoyer sanitarium, Kenosha, Wis., where the former will undergo an operation.

MURDER IS DONE IN COURT ROOM

SENATOR POINDEXTER

Miles Poindexter, senator from the state of Washington, is responsible in a large measure for the investigation that is to be conducted into the textile industry. Senator Poindexter made a personal investigation of conditions at Lawrence, Mass., and then set about the agitation for a congressional investigation.

APPELLATE COURT UPHOLDS MRS. TRUMAN

OTTAWA COURT HANDS DOWN DECISIONS OF TWO CASES FROM THIS COUNTY—COUNTY COURT SUSTAINED; JURY VERDICT IS REVERSED.

The appellate court of the second district, at Ottawa, yesterday handed down decisions on two cases which had been taken up from this county. One was in the case of Truman and Rodesch, in which the appellate tribunal affirmed the decision of the county court of this county. The suit was one started by Mrs. Eleanor Truman to force Mr. Rodesch to vacate the rooms in the opera house block he has occupied for some time. The county court gave Mrs. Truman the right of possession and Attorney E. E. Wingert, representing Mr. Rodesch, carried the case up with the above noted result. Attorneys Harry Warner and H. A. Brooks appeared for Mrs. Truman.

The other case acted upon was the Harvey vs. McGuirk case, which grew out of the amount of commissions in a land deal, and is of a private nature. The Ottawa court reversed the judgment of a jury in the Lee county circuit court.

ESTABLISHES RECORD

Tax Collector Wm. King of Chilton township, who checked in to County Treasurer Frank C. Vaughan yesterday afternoon, has established the best record of the six collectors who have reported thus far this week. E. F. Barnes of Maytown also checked in yesterday.

ARE VISITING HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fisher of Nevada, Ia., who have but recently returned from California, are visiting at the home of Mr. Fisher's father, Assistant Supervisor E. E. Fisher.

JUDGE SHERMAN HERE TONIGHT

Hon. L. Y. Sherman, candidate for U. S. senator, will talk to the republicans of this vicinity this evening at 8 o'clock at the Dixon opera house.

Miss Mame Sullivan, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the hospital yesterday, is resting easily today.

MAKE MILK

CONTRACTS TOMORROW

Tomorrow is milk contract day at the Borden Condensed Milk Co. All contracts for milk for the next six months will be signed up with the farmers at the office of the company on this day.

SHERIFF AND LAWYER KILLED
BY MOB—JUDGE SERIOUSLY INJURED.

JUDGE ON BENCH; IS FIRED ON

Mob Violence Follows Conviction of Felon in Allen Gang Trial in Virginia—Governor Sends Troops to Quell Riot.

Richmond, Va., Mch. 14—Special to Telegraph—According to a telegram received here this morning by Gov. Mann from J. G. Ayres of Hillsville, Carrom county, Judge Thornton L. Massie of the 21st district court, was shot while on the bench there during the Allen gang trial, Attorney Wm. L. Foster, commonwealth attorney, was shot dead as he arose to address the court and Sheriff L. P. Webb, who was in the court room at the time, was also killed by a fusillade of shots just after court opened for the day. A score of people were hurt and calls for help were at once sent out.

Troops Sent From Roanoke.

Following the receipt of this message Gov. Mann at once ordered the troops sent to Hillsville from Roanoke. At 11 o'clock the governor received the following message from the clerk of the Carrom county court:

"Mob violence in Carrom county. Judge Massie, the sheriff, commonwealth attorney and some jurors and others were shot following the conviction of Floyd Allen for felony. The sheriff and commonwealth attorney are dead and Judge Massie is seriously injured and expected to die at any minute."

EX-MAYOR DUNNE SPOKE TODAY

INTRODUCED BY MAYOR BRINTON—PARTY OF DEMOCRATS ENTERTAINED CANDIDATES AT DINNER.

Judge Edward F. Dunne of Chicago, democratic candidate for governor, addressed a crowd of probably 125 at the city hall this afternoon, and in his address the ex-Chicago Mayor, after reviewing his record as administrator of the city, presented his claims for the governorship. He was introduced by Mayor W. B. Brinton, who entertained a party of ten at dinner at the Nachusa House for him. Those present at the dinner party were W. C. Durkes, H. S. Dixon, Rev. Whitcombe, Blake Grover, Angier Wilson, F. E. Stevens, John Devine and Theodore Fuller.

Judge Dunne opened his address with an eulogy of John P. Altgeld, after which he plunged into the present issues. He declared for the abolition of the state board of equalization and recommended as a substitute a commission to be appointed by the governor and approved by the senate, which should sit as a court the entire year, visiting the various counties of the state.

The jurist also favors the initiative and referendum, a corrupt practice act and an amendment to the constitution of the state which will enable more frequent and more easily accomplished amendments of that document in the future. Lastly, he came out for retrenchment of the state expenses.

HASN'T FOUND THE BALL.

Ward Miller has as yet failed to find his batting eye and as a result will have a still harder battle to oust Circus Solly Hoffman from the centerfield job on the Cubs, for yesterday at New Orleans, in the second game between the Pelicans and the Cub youngsters, Miller again failed to get a hit. He made four put-outs, however, two of them of Circus Solly's copyright kind.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

MARCH 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18.

You have good business ability, application and are not in the least lazy. You are a student of science and philosophy. You have a habit of doing what you want to and doing it well. You are fond of home. Can get very angry, but are generally good natured. Like fun. Your laugh is infectious. You do much in your way, but get little in return.

MARCH 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24.

You have good general business ability and keep an accurate account of expenses and receipts. You are faithful to your employer, bear considerable crowding of work and have a sort of happy-go-lucky nature. Some how you have an idea that everything will turn out right. You are somewhat domineering, and are impractical in a degree. Are very grateful.

We may pity those who bore us, but we usually hate those who make it obvious that we bore them.

Attended Meeting

Mrs. Louis Ploot, Mrs. John Duffy, and Mrs. Louis Gorton attended the meeting of the Mutual Aid Society of the Sugar Grove church, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Weisz in Palmyra yesterday.

Surprise Miss Rutt

Miss Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Rutt, near Prairieville, was pleasantly surprised and reminded of her fourteenth birthday on Saturday evening, March 9, by twenty-five of the young people walking in and taking possession of the home. The evening was spent in music and games, and at 10 o'clock a delicious supper was served, which was furnished by the guests. Near the midnight hour they parted for their homes expressing themselves as having spent a very enjoyable evening and wishing their hostess many such happy birthdays.

At Beatty Home

Friday evening fifty neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Beatty of the Bend and spent the evening in a good old fashioned "good" time. Music and games were the amusements afforded the guests. Refreshments were served and during the evening Mrs. Beatty treated the children to cracker jack which she had made herself. At a late hour the guests departed for their homes, with many expressions of pleasure at the delightful evening spent.

Farewell Party

The ladies of the Congregational church tendered Mrs. Lucinda Graham a farewell reception in the parlors of the church on Wednesday afternoon.

There were 25 present and several merry hours were spent with the lady who leaves April 1st for her new home in Montana.

Miss Kate Plant, in a few well chosen words, presented her with a lovely compartment hand bag, to which Mrs. Graham responded very graciously.

Delicious refreshments were served before the close of the affair.

Appointments Secure Prompt Service.

Eastern Star.
There will be a regular meeting of Dorothy chapter, O. E. S. tomorrow evening in Masonic hall.

Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Olson, who reside near Polo, entertained a few friends at dinner last evening.

St. Agnes Guild.

St. Agnes Guild will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. George Downing. All the members should attend.

W. C. O. F. Tonight.

The Woman's Catholic Order of Foresters will hold their regular meeting tonight at the Knights of Columbus hall.

Friendship Lodge Tonight.

Friendship lodge, A. F. & A. M., No. 7, will hold a special meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock, conferring degrees.

Visiting in Dixon.

Mrs. W. G. Brenner of Bloomington was entertained at the Charles Self home and will be in our city for an extended visit and at present is stopping at the H. W. Stauffer home. Mrs. Brenner is a former resident of Dixon and her husband was employed at the T. J. Miller store.

More Music Saturday.

The second of the Telegraph's musical gems, one of which is to be published weekly, will appear in Saturday's paper and will be appreciated by all instrumentalists. The number is to be "The Dance of the Hours" from Ponchielli's opera La Gioconda, sung by Enrico Caruso. This number is pronounced especially tuneful by pianists and the daily inclined readers of this paper will probably add their praises to those which have been given for the merit of Ponchielli's work.

Hitt May Wed Miss Elkins

New Orleans, March 9.—Occupying adjoining suites at the St. Charles Hotel, Miss Katherine Elkins, once the fiancee of the Duke of Abruzzi, and W. F. Hitt, son of R. R. Hitt, American minister to Guatemala, spent today and tonight in New Orleans, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Elkins, brother and sister-in-law respectively of Katherine.

The entire party sails tomorrow morning for Puerto Barrios, and will spend some time in Guatemala City, as the guests of Ambassador Hitt. While no definite statement was given out tonight it is understood that before Katherine Elkins returns to New York she will have changed her name. Her friends point out that this is leap year and that if Mr. Hitt still maintains his backwardness there can be no harm in helping it out. It was even reported that the contemplated marriage would be performed while at sea.

"Salad" Day at School.

Work at the School of Household Science continues with increasing interest and 70 women attended the afternoon session Wednesday, making a total of 107 for the day.

Miss Harrison's address on Protein in the Diet was full of instruction from first to last. Her discussion of meats and their comparative food value was excellent.

This was followed by demonstrations by Mrs. Barlow on Uses of the Cheaper Cuts of Meat, also ham, salmon and veal.

There is just one more day of this school. Do not fail to come "Salad Day."

The program for Friday is:
10 to 11. Selection and Care of Clothing.

2 to 2:30. Water and Mineral Water Combinations.

2:30 to 4. Demonstration. Fruits and Green Vegetables (Salads).

4 to 5:30. Preparation of Fruits.

Reception Enjoyed.

Elks and their families numbering in the neighborhood of four hundred attended the reception or house warming at the beautiful new club house last evening. The Elks, hosts of the evening, were everywhere and made everyone at home, and were most courteous in displaying the beauties and advantages of their new home to their guests. The elegant and commodious rooms were brilliantly illuminated and in the fireplace in the lounging room glowed ruddy logs, giving a cozy and homelike atmosphere to the scene. Miss Vera Jacobus furnished beautiful instrumental music throughout the evening. The billiard tables were well patronized and the players had many spectators during the evening. Some of the guests played cards, as others idled through the rooms in social converse. In the dining room the house committee served all with delicious sherbet and cakes. It was a very pleasant evening with the Elks in their new abode.

Here's Your Chance, Girls.

E. Gilbert of May, Idaho, a young western ranchman of good habits, wants to hear from young ladies of Dixon, Ill., so his letter reads. His address is L. Box D. May, Idaho. It is leap year, girls, and this is a golden opportunity. Don't pass it up!

Will Sew.

Mrs. M. W. Rowe's Sunday school class of the M. E. church will meet at her home tomorrow afternoon to sew.

Cake Sale.

The Aid society of St. Paul's Lutheran church will hold a sale of home baked articles at the O. H. Brown store on Saturday afternoon, March 16th.

Dinner for Sherman.

Tonight at the Nachusa House 25 Dixon men will give a dinner for Lawrence Y. Sherman, who speaks in this city tonight.

Dance at Elks.

The first ball to be held in the brand new ball room in the new club house will be held Friday evening. The floor looks very tempting and excellent music will be furnished by Heit's Orchestra.

Meeting Postponed

The meeting of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society of St. Paul's Lutheran church to have been held at the home of Miss Lillian Gonneman this afternoon, has been postponed until tomorrow afternoon.

Society Meets.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet tomorrow at the home of Mrs. C. H. Ives, 115 Everett street.

Committee Meeting.

A committee meeting of the Inter-denominational Mission course will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. J. W. Llevan in North Dixon. The course was arranged last summer at the Assembly and each denomination will have a representative present.

Many Inspect New Elks Club.

Despite the storm this afternoon a number of citizens visited the new Elks building and complimented the members on the success of their efforts for a new home. Incidentally they met Judge Dunne of Chicago, who spent the afternoon here. This evening the building will be open for inspection from 8 to 11.

Dance Tomorrow Night.

The opening ball in the new dance hall will be held tomorrow evening and the committee announces that the tickets can be secured by Elks and those who have received invitations from Charles Miller at Boynton Richards clothing store. The dancing will begin promptly at 8:30.

Married Today.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon Edward Isenberg of Grand Detour and Mrs. Almira Saumby of Dixon were united in marriage at St. Paul's Lutheran parsonage, Rev. F. D. Altman officiating. The couple has many friends in this city and will make their home in Grand Detour. Congratulations are being extended by their friends.

Dramatic Notes

FAMILY THEATRE

The bill for the last half of the week promises to be good from the fact that the Campus Four, a quartet of young people who appear in singing and dancing, have been secured. This act is interspersed with clean comedy and is presented with special scenery and costumes. Millard Bros. will complete the bill with a sketch called A Comedy on Wheels. This act is billed as a scream from start to finish.

OPERA HOUSE.

No play produced on the American stage in the last quarter century has stirred up such a wonderful amount of controversy and discussion as "The Servant in the House," which is to be presented at the opera house tomorrow night, March 15th, exactly as seen at the Savoy theatre in New York City during its famous one year run and at Powers' theatre during its six months' run in Chicago. It is that rarest avish among dramatic pieces, a play which is not only entertaining and gripping because of its sheer dramatic strength and intensity, but which drives home a number of great moral truths with sledge hammer blows. It is a play that appeals to the average man and the highly educated man alike.

The company that will be seen here is headed by Hugo Koch, who will be seen in the title role. Mr. Koch is surrounded by the greatest company of players ever sent into the Middle West.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Good pictures still come at Princess. Always a good program. Tonight there will be show a fine selection of pictures, a drama, comedy and a western. An Unwelcome Santa Claus is a very pretty colored drama with a fine plot.

Unexpected Duty is a comedy all will roar at.

Run on the Bank, a western drama, sensational pictures that will hold the interest.

WHY NOT PATRIOTS IN WAX?

Suggestion for Exhibitions of Effigies Comes From the Shows Common in England.

How many school children would recognize historical personages, other than perhaps Washington and Lincoln, if they met them face to face? A South Side matron recently returned from a tour of the British Isles, was speaking. She said:

"In Great Britain every little town has its wax works show. It is a mystery to me why we Americans with our far famed business sagacity have so long neglected so fertile a field. They are as common and as cheap there as moving picture shows are here. In these places all the famous characters of history and literature are depicted. A school child is able to go into a wax works show and get an accurate idea of the costumes, faces and figures of any particular time. How many of us can get such an idea from a pile of clothing lying ticketed on a museum shelf?"

"Mrs. Tussaud's wax works in London are probably the most complete of its kind in the world. Thousands of figures and scenes are depicted in so close imitation of life that one really lives history over again there."

Staining Glass.

The art of colored glass has been lost and refound, guarded and stolen so many times during the history of civilization that it seems almost impossible to say anything new on glass staining. Yet a process has been discovered for making the stained glass used in windows which is a departure from anything known to the old timers.

The glass first receives its design in mineral colors, and the whole is then fired in a heat so intense that the coloring matter and the glass are indissolubly fused. The most attractive feature of this method is that the surface acquires a peculiar pebbled character in the heat, so that when the glass is in place the lights are beautifully soft and mellow.

Swimmers the Prey of Eels.

A remarkable story of the seizure of swimmers by eels comes from New Zealand. A stream in New Zealand was a favorite bathing place because the current was swift and strong. Time after time the bather would begin to shriek and splash on the surface, would disappear before help could reach him, and when his body had been found it had invariably been eaten by eels. The cause of the fatality remained shrouded in mystery, for a long time, but at length the true cause was discovered that whilst the swimmer was almost stationary in the rapid stream a huge eel would seize him by the foot or leg and drag him down beneath the surface.

Tells Women How to Have Charming Hair

Walter Brauer of Route 7 was a business visitor in Dixon today.

Rough, coarse hair is unnecessary; so is faded, dull looking hair.

Dandruff and scalp itch are both caused by an accumulation of scurfy filth and can easily be gotten rid of.

Dandruff germs cause falling hair and disease of the hair and scalp, and should be destroyed.

If you have any to the hair troubles mentioned above Rowland Bros will guarantee PARISIAN SAGE to end everyone of them or will refund your money.

PARISIAN SAGE is a delightful hair dressing that is being used today by many thousands of lovely Americans who detest uncleanness.

MOST PATIENT OF THIEVES

In San Francisco a Man Was Discovered Stealing the Parts of Roller Skates.

Out at the Coliseum skating rink there has been discovered evidence of one of the most patient and hopeful thieves in America. A day or two ago he undertook to steal a pair of skates piecemeal, but the evidence of his work was discovered and he remains in possession of three wheels, a bolt or two and a couple of pieces of metal that can be of no earthly use without the remaining sections of the skates, which remain in possession of the management. To compensate for the loss the Coliseum stands in possession of one felt hat, with the name of the dealer cut out of the band and a gap where the owner's initials were carried.

To evade the regulations of the rink the optimistic crook was obliged to carry an extra hat or cap and a set of tools which enabled him to take the skates apart. The unpurloined portions were discovered by a special policeman in an unfrequented corner of the pavilion.—San Francisco Bulletin.

DEMENTTOWN

Dixon ladies will no doubt have some hesitancy about wearing their new silk dresses.

Probably the next thing on the program will be the Franklin Grove post office, or Roseman's store at Ashton.

The thieves were also smooth as silk.

Siebolt has repaired his lighting system, and now maintains that it's nobody's business if his shop does blow up.

Some of the commissioners want a fire truck. We certainly auto have one.

And it is almost time to dig up something else to make an ordinance about.

Strange how cold it keeps with all that hot air rolling around. Six opticians to speak in one week should warm things up some.

Wait for Teddy? Here too.

Last call for purchase of stock in Zoeller's get-rich-quick scheme.

On second thought, if everyone would hurry and spring a new silk dress, it might confuse the authorities so they wouldn't know which was which.

"Officials for Playgrounds" captions the Sterling Gazette. Sure and then a couple of trains of cars to play with. It's dangerous to let them hang around the railroad tracks, with trains running 8 miles an hour through the bergs.

There is a suspicion, in connection with that Sterling crusade against the trains running so fast that the noise made by the swiftly moving engine wakes up the inhabitants. (It will be remembered that Sterling abandoned the curfew because the whistle disturbed the people's slumbers.)

The Gazette also heads an article "Some Snow Plow Kicks." Nothing strange about that. One in Dixon must have kicked, too, for it has quit working up toward Ye Ed's house.

Goose Hollow Letter

A very sad accident befell Deacon Butts, pillar of the Hardshell church yesterday while on his way home from the grocery. He was carryin' a dozen eggs in one hand and a jug of hard cider in the other when he stepped on a walk that was some slickerish and sat down quite sudden, sufferin' the fracture of a few ribs and the dozen eggs. The deacon says he don't mind bustin' his ribs so much, but eggs is eggs these days. He also suffered a compound fracture of the elder jug, which was all busted up, but the cider was so hard it didn't break (Which is a joke).

Followed Instructions.

The story is told of a Dixon doctor—to imply any moore might indicate his name—which happened while he was an interne in a Chicago hospital. It is said that this doctor was called upon to examine a patient the morning after the night before—when he was some tired. The sick woman complained that her lungs bothered her, whereupon, after taking her temperature, looking at her tongue and feeling of her pulse, the Doc sat down beside the bed and, placing his ear to her chest, asked her to talk a little. She didn't know what to say, so the physician told her to count. "One, two, three, four, five, six," began the sick lady. But when he again opened his eyes with a start the woman was counting huskily, "Ten hundred and sixty-nine, ten hundred and seventy."

ITALIANS ROUT ARABS

1,000 of Latter Killed and 1,000 Wounded.

Strongly Intrenched Defenders Driven Into the Desert at the Point of the Bayonet.

Bengazi, Tripoli, March 14.—More than 1,000 Arabs were killed and another 1,000 wounded, according to Italian advisers, in the course of one of the stiffest encounters of the war, when the Italians stormed and occupied two bases northeast of Fojat, strongly intrenched and held by a large force of Arabs, who were routed at the point of the bayonet. Over 400 Arab corpses were left on the battlefield, and the Italian officers report that an enormous number were carried off by the retreating enemy. The loss of the Italian troops is given as three officers and twenty-five soldiers killed, while they also had seven officers and fifty-five soldiers wounded.

Constantinople, March 14.—Edhem Pasha, the Turkish commander in the district of Bengazi, reports to the Turkish war minister an important Turko-Arab success at Tobruk. He says the Italians were driven out of their positions and retreated to their ships after a battle that lasted eleven hours. Edhem Pasha estimated the Italian casualties at 2,000 killed and wounded. The Turkish losses also were very heavy.

SAVE 6 IN BREECHES BUOY

Ocean City (Md.) Life Savers Take Off Wrecked Schooner's Men.

Ocean City, Md., March 14.—Captain Bennett and six men were rescued in a breeches buoy by the Ocean City life savers here from the Wilmington (Del.) three masted schooner, John W. Hall. The vessel stranded three miles south of here. The schooner will be a total loss. The rescues were effected with great difficulty.

AGREE TO FUR SEAL TREATY

Amended by Senate Committee to Provide Ten Year Closed Season.

Washington, March 14.—The senate foreign relations committee agreed to report favorably the fur seal treaty after amending it to provide for a ten year closed season for sealing. The amendment adopted was along the lines of a provision recently offered by Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska.

SENATE CONFIRMS PITNEY

Opposition to Appointment as U. S. Judge Crumbles.

Washington, March 14.—Chancellor Mahlon Pitney of New Jersey has been confirmed by the senate as an associate justice of the Supreme court of the United States. The vote was 50 to 26. The opposition to Chancellor Pitney crumbled during the first two hours of the senate's executive session to consider the appointment, and a vote was reached shortly after 2 p. m.

Lies Three Days Beside Dead Wife. Pomeroy, O., March 14.—Neighbors who called to see Mrs. George Baer, aged eighty, who, it was supposed, had recovered from a recent indisposition, found the woman had died three days ago. During all of that time the body lay alongside her aged husband, a paralytic, who had been unable to give the alarm.

ARMY OF WOMEN STORM CAPITOL

Two Thousand of Them in Washington in Cause of Suffrage.

SEEK CONGRESSIONAL AID

Speakers Grow Eloquent in Championship of the Cause of Suffragism—Congressman Hopes to See Mothers in National House.

Washington, March 14.—An army of two thousand women has taken the United States capitol by storm in the cause of woman suffrage. The weapons they used were eloquent words, still more eloquent smiles and the most captivating of spring bonnets.

Heading this army were two generals, Rev. Anna Shaw, who took charge of the peaceful attack on the senate judiciary committee, and Miss Jane Adams, the beloved apostle of Hull House, Chicago, who led the forceful advance on the house judiciary committee.

Associated with these were speakers, who in a most businesslike manner, laid before the committees their views on suffrage for women. The big committee room of the house was packed to the doors and many women stood on boxes during the entire session.

Miss O'Reilly First Speaker. The first speaker was Miss Leonard O'Reilly of New York city, a worker among working women there, whose striking speech brought tears to the eyes of many of those in the room. She spoke, she said, for the eight million working women of the country.

"We working women," she cried in her mellow Irish voice, "not only ask for the ballot; we need it. We must earn our bread in the mills, the mines, the factories of this country, and we have not the protection we should have. Gentlemen, you have been making our laws for us. Now we want to make laws for ourselves, for gentlemen, your laws are not good for us. We have been overworked, overworked; we have borne the heat and toil of the day and we come to you as to a big brother, to ask you to help us. You listen to workmen with power of the ballot behind them. We want you to listen to us, and that is why we want the ballot. Your political house is in a mess, turn it over to us and let us houseclean, as we have done since the time of Adam. It may inconvenience you, but it will do you good."

Hope to See Mothers in Congress. After several other speeches by suffragettes, Representative Laflerty of Washington, author of a house resolution providing for a constitutional amendment, declared that he did not believe that any mistake would be made when a vote was placed in the hand that rocked the cradle.

"I hope the day will come when there are fifty American mothers in the house of representatives," he cried, "and at least twenty-five in the senate."

DISCUSS WAGE RATES

Operators and Engineers Have Important Meet.

Upon Deliberations of Conference Depends Whether There Will Be a Strike on Eastern Roads.

New York, March 14.—A conference was begun here today between a committee representing 48 railroads operating in the eastern territory and a committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, to discuss articles of adjustment already submitted by the engineers, which include a provision for the standardization and general increase of wage rates. Upon the deliberations of this conference will depend whether or not there is to be a strike on the eastern roads.

An official of one of the roads said that the acceptance of the demands of the engineers would mean an increase of from 15 to 20 per cent, and would amount in cash to something like $410,000,000 annually. Just what move will be made by the engineers at once.

in the event that their plans are rejected is a question that is causing no little speculation among the officials of the roads involved.

ONE DYNAMITE CASE TRIAL

Judge Anderson at Indianapolis Refuses to Give Separate Hearings.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 14.—All the defendants indicted for violation of federal statutes governing transportation of explosives must go to trial on October 1, according to the final ruling of Judge A. B. Anderson here, after he had heard arguments of attorneys for the defense on a motion for separate trials.

Steals to Buy Medicine.

Louisville, Ky., March 14.—After serving twenty-four years in the railway mail service without a blemish on his record, Arch B. Terrell, fifty-three years old, confessed to secret service officers that he had stolen a total of $13 from registered letters to buy Christmas presents and medicine for his son, who has tuberculosis.

KILLS TRAIN BANDITS

One Dies From Mallet Blow, the Other Is Shot.

Piucky Express Messenger on Southern Pacific Train in Texas Robbery—Rewarded by Passengers.

Sanderson, Tex., March 14.—Two robbers attempting to loot the express car of Southern Pacific train No. 9, west-bound, were killed by Express Messenger John Trousdale. The money of the express company was saved. Trousdale hit the first robber on the head with a mallet and killed him as he crawled into the car. As the second one came up the messenger, with the gun dropped by the dead robber, shot the top of his head off. The two climbed aboard the engine at Dryden and forced Engineer Grosh to uncouple the express and baggage car and run ahead. Arriving at Baster's curve, the robbers attempted to enter the express car after stopping the train and both were killed. The passengers in the train took up a large collection and presented it to the messenger.

After the bandits halted the train one of them stood guard over the engineer and fireman while the other started to rifle the mail and express cars, compelling Mail Clerks Banks and Trousdale to assist him. After finishing with the mail the robber marched Trousdale to the express car at the point of a revolver and began to search packages.

SENDS AINSWORTH REPORT

Stimson Gives House Correspondence Bearing on Army Case.

Washington, March 14.—Secretary Stimson has transmitted to the house the correspondence it requested bearing on the relief from duty of Adj. Gen. F. C. Ainsworth prior to his recent retirement. The papers made public disclosed numerous instances of the adjutant general's communications with his associates which the war department construed as examples of language of an intemperate and discourteous character detrimental to the best interests of the army.

WOMEN LAY WALK AT NIGHT

Take Action on Street Impassable for Nearly Two Years.

Wichita, Kan., March 14.—Twelve women laid a brick walk on Central avenue and Stephens street at midnight here. Residents of that section saw women toiling at the job at a late hour. When a late pedestrian appeared the women scattered. When the coast was clear they returned, carrying paving brick from the company's piles into the street. The street has been impassable for nearly two years.

PASS COMPENSATION BILL

Michigan House in Special Session Approves Workmen's Act.

Lansing, Mich., March 14.—By unanimous vote the house of representatives passed a workmen's compensation and employers' liability bill. The bill was one of two measures for the enactment of which Governor Osborn called a special session. The senate is expected to take action at once.

Sick Women

When shown positive and reliable proof that a certain remedy had cured many cases of female ills, wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering with the same trouble?

Here are five letters from southern women which prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks to you and your great medicine. I was a sufferer from female troubles and had been confined in bed over one third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me alone for five minutes at a time. Now I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what these medicines have done for me and I will always speak a good word for them."—Mrs. ROBERT BLANKENSHIP, Elliston, Montgomery Co., Va.

LETTER FROM LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, La.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with hot flashes, weak and dizzy feelings, backache and irregularities. I would get up in the morning feeling tired out and not fit to do anything. Since I have been taking your Compound and Blood Purifier I feel all right. Your medicines are worth their weight in gold."—Mrs. GASTON BLONDEAU, 1541 Polymnia St., New Orleans, La.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.

Wauchula, Fla.—"Some time ago I wrote to you giving you my symptoms, headache, backache, bearing-down, and discomfort in walking, caused by female troubles. I got two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash and that was all I used to make me a well woman. I am satisfied that if I had done like a good many women, and had not taken your remedies, I would have been a great sufferer. But I started in time with the right medicine and got well. It did not cost very much either. I feel that you are a friend to all women and I would rather use your remedies than have a doctor."—Mrs. MATTIE HODNOT, Box 408, Wauchula, Florida.

LETTER FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

Martinsburg, W. Va.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for my mother, daughter and myself. I have told dozens of people about it and my daughter says that when she hears a girl complaining with cramps, she tells her to take your Compound."—Mrs. MARY A. HOCKENBERRY, 712 N. 3rd St., Martinsburg, W. Va.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Newport News, Va.—"About five years ago I was troubled with such pains and bloating every month that I would have to go to bed. A friend told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. The medicine strengthened me in every way and my doctor approved of my taking it. I will be glad if my testimony will help some one who is suffering from female weakness."—Mrs. W. J. BLAYTON, 1029 Hampton Ave., Newport News, Va.

Why don't you try this reliable remedy?

CASCARETS FOR SICK SOUR STOMACH

Gently but Thoroughly cleanse and Regulate your Stomach, Liver and Bowels while you Sleep

That awful sourness, belching of and foul gases, that severe pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means indigestion; a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they cure indigestion, regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended forever. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing too.

Speaking of the Divorce Evil

Trying to succeed in business without advertising is like the case of the man who, trying to outguess, divorced his wife and alone attempted to keep house and raise his children. It cost him more money for doctor bills and funeral expenses in a year than he gave his wife in a lifetime.

When advertising is divorced, business success becomes failure.

This paper is building your neighbor's business. He has reasons. He tried advertising and it helped him. It is not an experiment—this paper brings results. Good, hard, convincing results—dollars.

J. K. CHESTER DIED IN HOT SPRINGS

ONE OF STERLING'S MOST PROMINENT MERCHANTS IS DEAD AFTER LINGERING ILLNESS.

Sterling, Mich., 14—Special to Telegraph—Sterling is shocked by a message announcing the death of Hon. J. K. Chester, one of the most prominent and most beloved of the city's residents.

Mr. Chester died at Hot Springs, Ark., after several weeks' serious illness, from which it was known he could hardly survive though his hundreds of friends hoped against hope and were cheered up now and then by news of gains and rallies.

J. K. Chester was born in 1843 and came to Sterling in 1869 and since then has been actively engaged in the mercantile business here. He was the owner of the biggest retail store in Sterling, which business he built up, was a strong church man and one of the founders of the Y. M. C. A. in Sterling. He was also a director in the First National bank.

His wife, who was with him when he died, and one daughter, Mrs. J. A. Kilgour, survive him.

The remains of the honorable gentleman will be brought to Sterling Saturday, the funeral date has not yet been decided upon.

PASS PROPOSED SALOON ORDINANCE

LAW PROHIBITING A BREWER HOLDING LEASE ON BUILDING IN WHICH LIQUOR IS SOLD, IS PASSED.

Three commissioners of Dixon city council, constituting a majority of that body, met in adjourned session this afternoon and passed the ordinance making it necessary for every applicant for saloon license to submit with their application a copy of the lease under which they occupy said building, and an affidavit that no one interested in the brewing or distilling industry in any way has anything to do with the building; and prohibiting the issue of a license to anyone who shall violate the above conditions. Mayor Brinton and Commissioners Schmidt and Van Bibber supported the ordinance, the others not being present at the time of roll call. However, Commissioner Schuler, who entered a few minutes after adjournment, asked to be recorded in favor of the ordinance.

FRISBY OUSTED 'LITTLE EVA.'

The management of the Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin troop, which showed last night at the Dixon opera house, was notified by Factory Inspector Charles Frisby of this city yesterday afternoon not to attempt to use any person under 16 years of age in the performance, thereby prohibiting the displaying of a child in the role of Little Eva. The company carries a person over the required age limit to fill the part when the factory inspectors get busy.

Snake Had Lived on Eggs.

On his morning round for eggs recently, Michael Helseman of Custice, O., reached into a hen's nest and touched an object that made him jump back quickly. A closer examination showed a big spotted snake coiled in the nest. Beating a hasty retreat, Helseman secured a shotgun and on reaching the nest noticed that the snake had swallowed a china nest egg and was gradually working it down its throat. It was but the work of a moment to blow off the head of the reptile. Helseman then recalled the fact that his egg supply had declined recently, and he thinks that the snake, with perhaps its mate, had been making forays on the roost for some time.

Trouble Forecast.

"My wife says women ought to vote," said Mr. Meekton.
"Well, have you any objection?"
"No. But there's going to be a terrible row if the women of our community get the vote and then try to vote for anybody except her."

NEW STERLING FIRM

FILES PAPERS

The Vaile & O'Malley Clothing company filed corporation papers at the Lee county court house today. The incorporators are Edward Vaile, George O'Malley and Wm. Schuck. The company is capitalized at $30,000.

The new company is the Sterling firm, of which Mr. Schuck, the new member, has been appointed manager.

REFINISH OFFICES.

The offices of Harry Edwards, A. H. Hanneken and A. G. Harris in the Union building are being entirely refinished and redecorated. The improvements will be greatly appreciated by the tenants and their patrons.

THE NEW STYLES OF OUR SPRING SUITS AND COATS

Give them an Irresistible Charm. The Styles in Women's and Misses Suits and Coats are so generally attractive and at the same time practicable that they find immediate favor with every woman seeing our displays. So many different materials are shown, such a broad range of colors and such diversity in the character of the styles themselves that a selection is assured to please everyone's liking. Of all the materials Whipcords and Serges are undoubtedly most deserving of mention, their popularity now assured will become decidedly evident as the Season advances.

KIDS MISS SCHOOL TO SEE PARADE

Young America Prefers Bloodhounds and Slave Drivers To Geography and Arithmetic.

The late arrival of the Stearns-Uncle Tom's Cabin troop, which showed here last evening, prevented the giving of the parade at the noon hour, and the result was a noticeable decrease in the attendance of the schools yesterday afternoon. Many of the youngsters, intent on seeing the parade, evidently forgot all about their studies, and the aid of the truant officers was enlisted by the school officials.

Prof. Baldwin and Janitor Monahan of the North Dixon schools found it necessary to make a trip to the south side of the river to roundup the children who were waiting for the parade and Police Sergeant Gaffney was busy for over an hour "encouraging" young America to take advantage of its educational advantages.

Knew it Was an Idle Threat.
"Then," he cried tragically, "then you reject me? And for my hated rival?"

"Yep," she answered, coldly, but colloquially. "Yep to both questions."
"Ha! Then I owe the fellow a grudge. I have long owed him $10.
And now I will pay both debts at once and he will fall dead!"

Lighting his cigarette at the hall gas jet, he departed with a mocking laugh.
But the beautiful girl was not alarmed. She knew he could never carry out his devilish scheme. For she knew that he never had $10 at once in his whole life.

TRAIN PLUNGES INTO THE HUDSON

gers Into Icy Waters.

TWENTY-FIVE ARE INJURED

Two Killed and Nine Hurt in Indiana Wreck--One Boy Dies and Several Men Injured When Two Freight Trains Smash.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., March 14.—The first section of the Twentieth Century limited, the New York Central railroad's train de luxe, bound from Chicago to New York, was wrecked near Hyde Park, eight and one-half miles north of Poughkeepsie, and twenty passengers were hurt, nine of them seriously.

The four rear cars, all Pullman sleepers, crashed down a twelve-foot bank and plunged into the Hudson river. Two of them smashed their way through the ice, while the other two remained on top. Nurses and physicians were called from Poughkeepsie, while a wrecking crew was hastily run to Hyde Park to clear the tracks.
A dense fog prevailed at Poughkeepsie at the time of the accident. The New York Central sent a special train from Poughkeepsie to carry physicians and nurses to the scene.

Passengers Caught in Berths.
The accident was found to be due to a break in the water scoop, a contrivance designed to enable fast passenger trains to take up water without stopping.

There were 56 passengers on the train. Some were still in their berths and crawled through the broken windows of the derailed cars in their night clothes. Uninjured women passengers acted as nurses and helped care for the injured until the special arrived.

Two Dead, 9 Hurt in Indiana Wreck.
Greencastle, Ind., March 14.—Two were killed and nine injured, some of them probably fatally, when the New York Central's 24-hour New York to St. Louis train plunged into a Big Four freight train here.

A mistake in orders by the crew of the freight train was responsible for the wreck.

The freight, west-bound, was standing on the main track, when the eastbound passenger train crashed into it at high speed. Both locomotives and three passenger cars were thrown from the track by the force of the impact.

The engineer of the passenger locomotive saw his danger in time, to jump to safety. The driver of the other engine clung to his throttle.
His body was taken from the demolished cab by a wrecking crew, which was hurried to the scene.

Boy Killed in Freight Crash.
Syracuse, N. Y., March 14.—One boy was killed and several men were injured when a fast freight train on the New York Central collided with one on the Lehigh Valley at the Main street crossing in Canastota. A boy stealing a ride on the New York Central train was killed. He was identified as George Koof of Utica.

Peking, China, March 14.—Gen.
Sheng Yuan, who under the empire held the post of governor of the province of Shensi, is marching at the head of 10,000 soldiers from the province of Kansu to Peking to restore the emperor to the throne. The commander of the emperor's guards at the palace has received a message to this effect.

fragettes found guilty of windowsmashing on March 1. The sentence affected ten women. They were tried in the superior court because the damage done had exceeded $25.

Aeroplanes in Collision.

Berlin, Germany, March 14.—A collision occurred between two aeroplanes lying around the aerodrome at Tobannsthal. Both the aeroplanes were smashed and fell to the ground, the passenger being injured, while the two airmen escaped unhurt.

RURAL CARRIER EXAMINATION

At Dixon, Ill., for Lee County—Saturday, April 6, 1912.

The United States civil service commission announces an examination on the date and at the place named above, as a result of which it is expected to fill a vacancy in the position of rural carrier at Franklin Grove and other vacancies that may occur on rural routes at post offices in the above, as a result of which it is expected to fill the vacancy by reinstatement, transfer, or promotion. The usual entrance salary for rural carriers is from $600 to $1,000 per annum.

Age limit, 18 to 55, on the date of examination. The maximum age limit is waived in cases of persons honorably discharged from the United States military or naval service.

An applicant must have his domicile in the territory supplied by a post office in the county for which the examination is announced.

The examination is open to all male citizens of the United States who can comply with the requirements.

Application Form 1341, and full information concerning the requirements of the examination, can be secured from the secretary of the local examining board or the postmaster at any of the places named above, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Applications should be properly executed and filed with the Commission at Washington. As examination papers are shipped direct from the Commission to the places of examination, it is necessary that applications be received in ample time to arrange for the examination desired at the place indicated by the applicant. The Commission will therefore arrange to examine any applicant whose application is received in time to permit the shipment of the necessary papers.

An eligible register for the position of rural letter carrier for each county will be maintained. A person must be examined in the county in which the post office that supplies his home is situated. As a result of such examination he may become eligible to appointment as rural carrier at any post office in such county. A rural letter carrier after one year's satisfactory service may be transferred to the position of clerk or carrier in a first or second class post office, to the position of railway mail clerk, or to other position in the classified service subject to such examination as may be required by the civil service rules.

CHILDREN A RECENT FIND

Not Before the Nineteenth Century
Were They Truthfully Portrayed In Literature.

Children were only found yesterday.
Before the nineteenth century the child mind and the child heart were not supposed to have enough in them to interest the majestic adult. It is true that you find a delightful baby in Homer; that in Virgil there is the prettiest glimpse of a little girl, and up and down in the classics you may meet half a dozen other pleasant shadows of children. But they are only shadows, only at the most charming pictures. They give you much as if they were painting or sculpture—for in children's bodies art has always had interest enough—only what a child looks like, the pretty weakness, the instinct for play, the naive gesture and movement. Not till the "return to nature," not till the spirit of romance moved on the waters at the end of the eighteenth century, do you find poets beginning to tell of the thought and faith in a child's mind, the mysteries of the child's heart, the fancies that are dreams and the fancies that are visions. You may think that they have gone too far, that they read into childhood the laborious philosophizing and sometimes the labored sentimentality of the adult. But no one who loves children will deny that the best of the children in nineteenth century books have a far richer reality, a far fuller life than any that were born in early works. And some of the best are in Dickens.—London Tel-ograph.

An Indian Day.

In the dew-drenched sunrise, while the air was caressingly cool, we went forth to ride along the river bank and beside fields of yellow mustard or dun stubble; then, on our return to the shadowed tents, a bath, breakfast, and the day's occupations; then again,
in the swift dusk of evening, when furtive jackals rent the twilight stillness with wailing and demoniac laughter, or the silver bark of little foxes echoed over the mist-veiled rice-fields, white under the moon, we gathered in comfortable deck chairs in a great, dim aisle of the mango grove, while the tents shone orange in the lamplight, to tell sad stories of the deaths of kinds, or listen to the Police Chota Sahib, who had a pretty, sentimental tenor, singing "The Long Indian Day."—Charles Johnston, in the Atlantic.

Some Shakespeare Statistics.

A Shakespearean enthusiast with much leisure time on his hands and a regular mania for statistics has discovered that the plays of Shakespeare contain 106,007 lines and 814, 780 words. "Hamlet" is the longest play, with 3,930 lines, and the "Comedy of Errors" the shortest, with 1,777 lines. Altogether the plays contains 1,277 characters, of which 157 are females.

The longest part is that of Hamlet, who has 11,610 words to deliver. The part with the longest word in it is that of Costard in "Love's Labor's Lost," who tells Moth that he is "not so long by the head as honorificabili-tudinifidibus."

Advice From Kindly Busy Body.
"Oh, my! Your house has an odor of burning milk. Don't you know how to avoid that?" asked the K. B. B.
"I didn't think it was so terrible.
I'm sure. Everybody has accidents of that kind," said the woman who was visiting rather irritably.
"Now it's all right, of course, I don't mind it, my dear, but next time just sprinkle some salt on the stove at once after the milk is spilled and you will avoid that unpleasant odor."

More Favorable Ground.
When our son was a boy of four a family of children moved next to us who were simply incorrigible. Of course their doings were much commented on in our family, and many a time I talked about "those dreadful Smith children."

One day I had occasion to correct
my little son, talking to him seriously.
He listened quietly for awhile, then looked up at me and said with the most engaging air: "Don't let's talk about this, mamma! let's talk about the Smith children."

THE MAN IN THE MAN

MARY ROBERTS RINEHART

AUTHOR OF "THE CIRCULAR STAIRCASE" "THE MAN IN LOWER TEN, ETC."

Copyright 1909 by THE BOBBY-METCAL COMPANY

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I.—James Wilson or Jimmy as he is called by his friends, Jimmy was found and looked shorter than he really was. His ambition in life was to be taken seriously, but people steadily refused to do so, his art is considered a huge joke, except to himself, he asked people to dinner everyone expected a frolic. Jimmy marries Bella Knowles; they live together a year and are divorced.

CHAPTER II.—Jimmy's friends arrange to celebrate the first anniversary of his divorce. Those who attend the party are Miss Katherine McNair, who every one calls Kit, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Brown, the Misses Mercer, Maxwell Reed and a Mr. Thomas Harrison, a South American engineer. The party is in full swing when Jimmy receives a telegram from his Aunt Selina, who will arrive in four hours to visit him and his wife. Jimmy gets his funds from Aunt Selina and after he marries she doubles his allowance. He neglects to tell her of his divorce, as she is opposed to it. Jimmy takes Kit into his confidence, he tries to devise some way so that his aunt will not learn that he has no longer a wife. He suggests that Kit play the hostess for one night, be Mrs. Wilson pro tem. Kit refuses, but is finally prevailed upon to act the part.

CHAPTER III.—Aunt Selina arrives and the deception works out as planned, as she had never seen Jimmy's wife.

CHAPTER IV.—Jimmy's Jap servant is taken ill, his face is covered with spots. Bella, Jimmy's divorced wife enters the house and asks Kit who is being taken sick in the ambulance, she insists it is Jimmy. Kit tells her Jim is well and is in the house. Bella tells Kit it wasn't him she wanted to see, but Takahiro, the Jap servant, as she wished to secure his services. Harrison steps out on the porch and discovers a man tacking a card on the door. He demands an explanation. The man points to the card and he sees the word smallpox printed on it. The man is an officer from the board of health and tells him the house is under quarantine and that the guests will have to stay until the quarantine is lifted.

CHAPTER V.—The guests suddenly realize their predicament. The women shed tears, the men consider it a good joke.

CHAPTER VI.—Harrison pleads with Kit to tell him the real situation of things. She finally tells him of Bella's incarceration in the basement.

CHAPTER VII.—The all important question arises as to who is to prepare the meals and perform the other household duties. Harrison finally solves the matter. He writes out slips containing the various departments of the house, each one is assigned to his or her duties.

CHAPTER VIII.—After the lifting of the quarantine several letters written by the guests were found in the mail box undelivered, one is addressed to Henry Llewellyn, Union Nitrate Company, Iquique, Chile, which was written by Harrison. He describes minutely of his incarceration, also of his infatuation for Mrs. Wilson.

CHAPTER IX.—Harrison attempts to patch up one quarrel after another between Kit and Jimmy. Aunt Selina is taken ill with a gripe. Betty acts as nurse.

CHAPTER X.—Harrison finds Kit sulking on the roof. She tells him that Jimmy has been treating her outrageously. Harrison fully believing that she is Mrs. Wilson, tells her that she doesn't mean the things she is saying and that she is a band. Kit starts downstairs, when suddenly she is grasped in the arms of a man who kisses her several times. She believes that Harrison is the one, who she did it and is humiliated.

CHAPTER XI.—Aunt Selina tells Jimmy her cameo breastpin and other articles of jewelry and money have been stolen. She accuses Betty of the theft.

CHAPTER XII.—The following morning Jimmy was in a rage. The papers published a story about the incarceration of the party, and that one of the guests had attempted to escape by means of laying a board across to the roof of the adjoining house, but that one of the guests by a detective who fired a revolver at him.

CHAPTER XIII.—Jimmy tells Aunt Selina all the strange happenings, but she persists in suspecting Betty of the theft of her valuables.

CHAPTER XIV.—Dal devises a plan to escape from the house. They set fire to the reception room and attempt to leave the house from the rear. The guests discover the ruse and rush back to the rear of the house in time to prevent them from escaping in automobiles that had been ordered for their flight.

CHAPTER XV.—Max finds Anne's pearl clutch pin in Jimmy's studio in a discarded copy of a newspaper. He suspects the theft but denies all knowledge of having known where it was. Flannigan gives Jimmy training lessons to reduce the surplus fat. The men discover that a hole had been drilled through a wall in the cellar into a vault that connected with the house adjoining that of the Wilsons. Harrison volunteers to crawl through the aperture; he returns and announced that he had found a watch hanging to a pillar in the basement with the initials T. H. H. engraved upon it. Harrison opens the door and finds a picture of a girl that had been clipped from a newspaper. It was her picture.

CHAPTER XVI.—Kit shows Harrison the watch. He explains that he has been looking for it and believed it was stolen.

CHAPTER XVII.—Harrison threatens to tar and feather Jimmy if he doesn't treat Kit more civil. A clash between the two is averted by the interference of the who was a witness to the conversation.

CHAPTER XVIII.—The guests retire for the night. Aunt Selina hears a noise during the night and awakens Kit. She tells her she had seen a man crawl down the stairs and that he was in the library. Kit on his knees making love to Bella. Aunt Selina demands an explanation from Jimmy. Bella reveals the whole plot to Aunt Selina. She forgives Jim and Bella, but calls Kit a Jezebel.

CHAPTER XIX.—Aunt Selina orders Jim to order Harrison downstairs. She reveals the deception to him. He asks Kit if it is true and goes back to bed.

CHAPTER XX.—Jimmy is taken ill. Bella asks Harrison to go to his room and see what is ailing him. She told the assembled guests that he had a fever and spots appeared on his face. They are convinced that he is stricken with the measles.

CHAPTER XXI.—The Harrison Man. She talked for an hour, having got between me and the door, and she scolded Jim and Bella thoroughly. But they did not hear it, being occupied with each other, sitting side by side meekly on the divan with Jim holding Bella's hand under a cushion. She said they would have to be very good to make up for all the deception, but it was perfectly clear that it was a relief to her to find that I didn't belong to her permanently, and as I have said before, she was crazy about Bella.

her voice. It was a name that brought me to myself with a jerk.

"Mr. Harrison!" Aunt Selina was saying. "Then bring him down at once."

"It's Only Jim," I Whispered.

once, James. I want no more deception. There is no use cleaning a house and leaving a dirty corner.

"It will not be necessary for me to stay and see it swept," I said, mustering the rags she had left of my self-respect, and trying to pass her. But she planted herself squarely before me.

"You can not stir up a dust like this, young woman, and leave other people to sneeze in it," she said grimly. And I stayed.

I sat, very small, on a chair in a corner. I felt like Jezebel, or whatever her name was, and now the Harrison man was coming, and he was going to see me stripped of my pretensions to domesticity and of a husband who neglected me. He was going to see me branded a living lie, and he would hate me because I had put him in a ridiculous position. He was just the sort to resent being ridiculous.

Jim brought him down in a dressing-gown and a state of bewilderment. It was plain that the memory of the afternoon still rankled, for he was very short with Jim and inclined to resent the whole thing. The clock in the hall chimed half after three as they came down the stairs, and I heard Mr. Harrison stumble over something in the darkness and say that if it was a joke, he wasn't in the humor for it. To which Jim retorted that it wasn't anything resembling a joke, and for heaven's sake not to walk on his feet. He couldn't get around the furniture any faster.

At the door of the den Mr. Harrison stopped, blinking in the light. Then, when he saw us, he tried to back himself and his dishabille out into the obscurity of the library. But Aunt Selina was too quick for him.

"Come in," she called, "I want you, young man. It seems that there are only two fools in the house, and you are one."

He straightened at that and looked bewildered, but he tried to smile.

"I thought I was the only one," he said. "Is it possible that there is another?"

"I am the other," she announced. I think she expected him to say "Impossible," but, whatever he was, he was never banal.

"Is that so?" he asked politely, trying to be interested and to understand at the same time. He had not seen me. He was gazing fixedly at Bella, languishing on the divan and watching him with lowered lids, and he had given Jim a side glance of contempt. But now he saw me and he colored under his tan. His neck blushed furiously, being much whiter than his face. He kept his eyes on mine, and I knew that he was mutely asking forgiveness. But the thought of what was coming paralyzed me. My eyes were glued to his as they had been that first evening when he had called me "Mrs. Wilson," and after an instant he looked away, and his face was set and hard.

"It seems that we have all been playing a little comedy," Mr. Harrison. Aunt Selina began, nasally sarcastic. "Or, rather, you and I have been the audience. The rest have played."

"I don't think I understand," he said slowly. "I have seen very little comedy."

"It was not well planned," Aunt Selina retorted tartly. "The idea was good, but the young person who was playing the part of Mrs. Wilson—overacted."

"Oh, come, Aunt Selina," Jim protested, "Kit was coaxed and coaxed into this thing. Give me fits if you like; I deserve all I get. But let Kit alone—she did it for me."

Bella looked over at me and smiled nastily.

"I would stop doing things for Jim, Kit," she said. "It is so unprofitable."

But Mr. Harrison harked back to Aunt Selina's speech.

"Playing the part of Mrs. Wilson!" he repeated. "Do you mean—?"

"Exactly. Playing the part. She is not Mrs. Wilson. It seems that that honor belonged at one time to Miss Knowles. I believe such things are not unknown in New York, only why in the name of sense does a man want to divorce a woman and then meet her at two o'clock in the morning to kiss the place where his own wedding ring used to rest?"

Jim fidgeted. Bella was having spasms of mirth to herself, but the Harrison man did not smile. He stood for a moment looking at the fire; then he thrust his hands deep into the pockets of his dressing-gown and stalked over to me. He did not care that the others were watching and listening.

"Is it true?" he demanded, staring down at me. "You are not Mrs. Wilson? You are not married at all? All that about being neglected—and loathing him, and all that on the roof—there was no foundation of truth?"

I could only shake my head without looking up. There was no defense to make. Oh, I deserved the scorn in his voice.

"They—they persuaded you, I suppose, and it was to help somebody? It was not a practical joke?"

"No," I rallied a little spirit at that. It had been anything but a joke.

He drew a long breath.

"I think I understand," he said slowly, "but—you could have saved me something I must have given you all a great deal of amusement."

"Oh, no," I protested. "I—I want to tell you—"

But he deliberately left me and went over to the door. There he turned and looked down at Aunt Selina. He was a little white, but there was no passion in his face.

"Thank you for telling me all this, Miss Caruthers," he said easily. "Now that you and I know, I'm afraid the others will miss their little diversion. Good night."

Oh, it was all right for Jim to laugh and say that he was only huffed a little and would be over it by morning. I knew better. There was something queer in his face as he went out. He did not even glance in my direction. He had said very little, but he had put me as effectually in the wrong as if he had not kissed me—deliberately kissed me—that very evening, on the roof.

I did not go to sleep again. I lay wretchedly thinking things over and trying to remember who Jezebel was, and toward morning I distinctly heard the knob of the door turn. I mistrusted my ears, however, and so I got up quietly and went over in the darkness. There was no sound outside, but when I put my hand on the knob I felt it move under my fingers. The counter pressure evidently alarmed whoever it was, for the knob was released and nothing more happened. But by this time anything so uncomplicated as the fumbling of a knob at night had no power to disturb me. I went back to bed.

"MY FEET WERE JUST ACHING FOR TIZ"

Let Your Poor, Tired, Chafed, Tender Feet "Spread Out" Gloriously in a Bath of TIZ

"O' O' glory, what a feelin'! Wonderful what TIZ will do for your feet!"

Just take your shoes off, and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, cornstaked, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a TIZ bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy. They'll look up at you and almost talk, and then they'll take another dive in that TIZ bath! Yes, TIZ is life to feet!

"Just couldn't wait to take my hat off!"

The man or woman who says there's anything like, or as good as, TIZ, never had a foot in a TIZ bath.

When your feet ache, get tired, swollen, tender or sore, just try TIZ. Your feet will just feel fine, also your corns, bunions and callouses will disappear. You'll be able to wear smaller shoes, too, your feet will keep cozy; they'll never be frost-bitten, never chilblained.

TIZ operates under a new principle, drawing out all the poisonous exudations that make feet sore, corn and tired. There's nothing else like TIZ, so refuse any imitation.

TIZ, 25 cents a box, sold everywhere, or sent direct, on receipt of price, by Walter Luther Dodge Co., Chicago, Ill. Recommended by all Drug Stores, department and general stores.

Senator Hugh McGill will talk to the Republicans of Lee county on Friday at 2 p. m. at the Family Theatre.

REPORT 1,000 SLAIN

ITALIANS ROUT ARABS IN BATTLE AT FOJAT.

Roman Loss Put at Three Officers and 27 Soldiers Killed—Turkish Victory Also Claimed.

Benghazi, Tripoli, March 14.—More than 1,000 Arabs were killed and another 1,000 wounded, according to Italian advices, in the course of one of the stiffest encounters of the war when the Italians Tuesday stormed and occupied two bases situated to the northeast of Fojat, which were strongly entrenched and held by a large force of Arabs.

Many Dead Left on Field. More than 400 Arab corpses were left on the battle field and the Italian officers report that an enormous number were carried off by the retreating enemy. The loss of the Italian troops is given as three officers and twenty-five soldiers killed and seven officers and fifty-five soldiers wounded.

Constantinople, March 14.—Edhem Pasha, the Turkish commander in the District of Benghazi, reports to the Turkish war ministry an important Turco-Arab success at Tobruk. He says that the Italians were driven out of their positions and retreated to their ships after a battle which lasted 11 hours.

Edhem Pasha estimated the Italian casualties at 2,000 killed and wounded.

The Turkish losses were also very heavy, including many Arab women.

W. A. PEPPER CRITICALLY ILL

Former Populist Senator From Kansas in Topeka Hospital—Leg Amputated to Check Gangrene.

Topeka, Kan., March 14.—W. A. Pfeffer, former United States senator from Kansas, is critically ill at a hospital here. His right leg was amputated above the knee to check the progress of gangrene, which affected his foot.

Mr. Pfeffer was the first Populist senator from Kansas, being elected in 1891. He is eighty-three years old.

MINERS STRIKE SEEMS CERTAIN

Union Officials and Operators Say No Concessions Will Be Made.

MORE OUT IN GERMANY

Rioting Marks Spread of Labor War—British Peace Conference Futile—Peace, However, Still Hoped and Longed For.

New York, March 14.—The anthracite coal operators and the United Mine Workers of America alike profess unyielding adherence to their attitudes concerning the miners' demands.

"The situation looks very blue and the indications point to a strike," declared John P. White, president of the miners.

The operators say positively that they will make no concessions.

With the formal rejection of the miners' demands and the counter-proposition that the present agreement, which expires March 31, be continued for three years, the operators' committee of ten adjourned until tomorrow.

Adjournment was taken upon request of the miners' officials, who, meantime, will meet, consider the operators' reply and plan their procedure. Their decision, it is expected, will be announced at the joint meeting.

Firm in Stand.

"I can say this much," Mr. White declared, "we will not make any modification of our demands. Beyond that I cannot tell what will happen."

The operators' reply is a document of approximately 2,500 words. It deals in detail with the demands. The finding of the anthracite coal commission, appointed by President Roosevelt in 1902, is quoted against recognition of the union and the adoption of the one-year agreement.

The reply disposes of the demand that the operators collect union dues of their employees with the declaration that the laws of Pennsylvania forbid their doing so.

Prepare for Strike.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 14.—Railroads and manufacturing companies, in anticipation of a suspension of bituminous mining operations April 1, are gathering vast stores of coal. Mines are being worked to capacity and coal is being hauled to convenient points in such quantity as to create a car shortage, which further aggravates the situation. In consequence of the heavy demand, prices are soaring.

German Strike Spreads.

Berlin, March 14.—The coal miners strike in the great German coal fields of Westphalia continues to spread. There are over 240,000 men now on strike and the situation is becoming worse everywhere.

It has taken a most serious turn in several districts and has resulted already in a fatal conflict between the police and the strikers in the district of Herne.

British Conference Futile.

London, March 14.—The thirteenth day of the coal strike ended without a settlement having been reached. The joint conference of the representatives of the miners and mine owners and members of the cabinet adjourned "in order to consider certain proposals made by the prime minister," as the announcement put it.

Concerning the nature of the proposals and the results achieved at the conference the government is persisting in its policy of rigid secrecy, but there are indications that some progress in the direction of peace has been made and that the miners have receded from the position that they have heretofore maintained, that the only basis of a settlement would be the owners' acceptance of the federation's schedule of minimum wages.

VOTE TO END MILL STRIKE

Lawrence (Mass.) Committee Recommends Terms Be Accepted.

Lawrence, Mass., March 14.—The beginning of the end of the great textile strike, which begun January 12, is thought to have been reached. The general strike committee voted to recommend to the idle operatives of the American Woolen company's four mills that the wage schedule offered by the corporation be accepted.

EX-SENATOR PFEFFER ILL

First Populist Ever Elected to U. S. Senate From Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., March 14.—W. A. Pfeffer, the first Populist elected to the United States senate from Kansas, is critically ill at a hospital here. Senator Pfeffer underwent the amputation of his right leg above the knee to check gangrene, which first affected his foot, and has rallied only partly from the operation.

Knox Off to Costa Rica.

Acajutla, Salvador, March 14.—Secretary of State Knox and party have left on the Maryland for San Jose, Costa Rica. Before leaving here the secretary entertained on board the Maryland a party of 50 persons who had accompanied him on the return ship from San Salvador to Acajutla.

As farmers in Canada are going broke and land prices tumbling, no one will buy it. I have talked and advertised for ten years that only a third or less of either of the Dakotas was good for farming and the good part of S. D. too high to buy. The last two crops show what is best. Cavalier county had crops in 1910 that paid for the land and also in 1911. 1912 promises much better and I will still give you a chance to pay for a farm with one crop. As an investment land here will pay better interest on $100 an acre than land in Ill. at the prices it is selling at as there so much of the rent has to be paid out for taxes, improvements and insurance. Having been here over ten years I predict Hundred Dollar land here in five to seven years. The farmers here are buying it and they are making money faster than any other farmers in the world.

E. A. WADSWORTH, Langdon, N. D.

FOR SALE. S.C. Buff Oringtons, Martz and Owen strains, Houdans faultless strain, four buff and four Houdan cockerels for sale reasonable. VILLAGES ELECT TOWN RULER

No Contest in River Forest—Over 300
Ballots Cast in Maywood, Citizens'
Ticket Receives 10 and Good Government the Remainder.

Chicago, March 14.—At the primaries in the village of River Forest 57 votes were polled for a nonpartisan ticket and these nominations made: Clerk, Arthur S. Hatch; trustees, F. C. Hasenton, George L.
Meyer, William J. Von Der Leur; directors of the library board, Philo-men B. Kohlsaat and William J.
Schrelver. They had no opposition.
At the village of Maywood more than 300 ballots were cast. The Citizens' ticket received 10 votes and the Good Government ticket the remainder.
These were elected: Clerk, Samuel Donaldson; trustees, Samuel Cline, J.
Desmond and H. W. Page.

Organize for Better Roads.
Chicago, March 14.—The Illinois
Highway Improvement association was organized at the Hotel Sherman for the purpose of supplying a systematic supervision of all road building, the lack of which is held responsible for the waste of millions of dollars in the last fourteen years. Homer J. Tice, chairman of the roads committee of the Illinois house of representatives, declared that lack of system in the expenditure of the funds available showed as a result a low per cent. of improvement on the roads of the state. The project of the new association will cover the whole state.
There will be subcommittees in every county, with representatives from the townships. The following officers were selected: President, W. G.
Edens, Chicago; vice-presidents, S.
E. Bradt, DeKalb; C. A. Kiler, Champaign; C. G. Miller, Cairo; Mayor P.
A. Garner, Quincy; treasurer, Thomas Sudduth, Springfield; secretary, Richard J. Finnegan, Chicago; directors,
O. W. Holt, J. B. Maguire, Philip
Freder, M. D. Ode, Henry Paulman, Eugene Funk, H. G. Herget and Charles George.

Magill to Head the Ticket.
Springfield, March 14.—If the unofficial list of candidates for state offices as given out by Secretary of State Rose is made official and so certified to the county clerks the name of State Senator Hugh S. Magill of Princeton will appear first in the list of candidates for the Republican nomination for United States senator. In that event the name of Senator Shelby
M. Cullom will be second in the list and will be followed in order by the name of Lawrence Y. Sherman and William Grant Webster.

Sixty in Wreck of "Red Devil."
Bloomington, March 14.—Running forty miles an hour, the French Lick and West Baden passenger train on the Monon, placed in service two weeks ago and christened "The Red Devil," crashed into a freight train at Carpentersville. The passenger engine demolished the caboose, which was destroyed by fire, and four cars were derailed. The sixty passengers, all from Chicago and Milwaukee, were shaken up severely, but none was injured seriously.

2,000 Celts Will Assemble.
Chicago, March 14.—Over 2,000 Celts are expected to be in line when the grand march is announced at the Celtic American societies entertainment and ball at the Coliseum Annex Saturday night, St. Patrick's eve. The grand march will start at ten o'clock.
One of the features of the evening will be the distribution of real Irish shamrocks at the hands of Miss M. E. Freemont.

Roosevelt Club at Clinton.
Clinton, March 14.—The Dewitt County Roosevelt club was organized at Clinton. Judge Ingham was elected president. One hundred and ten members were enrolled. Vespasian Warner, former United States pension commissioner, endorsed Roosevelt in an address before the club.

Death by Doctor's Auto.
Bloomington, March 14.—William F. Bunker, a leading farmer, was killed when his horse took fright at an automobile driven by a physician.
He was thrown out of his buggy and his neck broken.

Causes Panic in Cathedral.
Peoria, March 14.—Patrick Daugherty, an escaped patient from the Illinois State hospital at Bartonville, invaded St. Mary's cathedral here, creating a panic. Daugherty insisted on being "sprinkled."

Large Wolf Steals Dog.
Roseville, March 14.—Mrs. Wasson, hearing the yelping of a rat dog, went to the door of the farmhouse in time to see a large wolf trotting off with the canine.

Presidential Primary for Rock Island.
Rock Island, March 14.—The Rock Island county Republican committee ordered a presidential preference ballot in connection with the April primaries.

Peach Trees Are Killed.
Assumption, March 14.—Fruit growers say three-fourths of the peach trees in this vicinity have been killed by the extreme cold of the last few months.
